

LEGISLATIVE BLACK CAUCUS
LAW AND JUSTICE WORKSHOP
Friday, November 5, 2010

Morning Session: "SAVING OUR CHILDREN FROM THE LEGAL SYSTEM"
Best Practices, Intervention and Prevention programs and Strategies

Time: 10:00am -12:00noon

Location: Judiciary Committee Room 100

Opening Remarks: Senator Lisa Gladden

Moderator: Matthew Frazier, Greater Baltimore Urban League

Presenter: Raymond Winbush, Institute for Urban Research, Morgan State University

Panelists: Jason Abbott, Assistant Attorney General, Office of the Attorney General;
Gregg Bernstein, State's Attorney for Baltimore City-Elect; John McCarthy, State's Attorney for Montgomery County; Angela Alsobrooks, State's Attorney for Prince George's County-Elect; Melissa Goemann, American Civil Liberties
Union of Maryland; Diana Bailey, Maryland State Department of Education;
Andre Bundley, Baltimore City Public Schools; and Judge Gregory Wells

LEGISLATIVE BLACK CAUCUS
LAW AND JUSTICE WORKSHOP
Friday, November 5, 2010

- Objective: To explore the use of Electronic Control Weapons (ECWs) by law enforcement and their effect on communities. To understand the effect proper training and statewide data collection will have on Maryland. To review possible legislation that will work to make Maryland law enforcement and civilians safer with the use of ECWs.
- Morning Session: The Use of Electronic Control Weapons in Maryland
- Time: 1:00pm – 3:00pm
- Location: Judiciary Committee Room 100
- Opening Remarks: Delegate Joseline Peña-Melnyk
- Moderator: TBD
- Presenter: Scott Hammack, O'Melveny and Myers, LLP
- Panelists: Melissa Goemann, American Civil Liberties Union of Maryland; Carl Snowden, Office of Civil Rights, Attorney General's Office; Chief William McMahon, Howard County Police Department